Doora Barefield Parish Assembly - Our Parish...

planning for the future. Some weeks ago Marie Connolly Quinn, Diocesan Pastoral Worker spoke at all Masses in the Parish. Her message was meant to provoke a conversation as to where we go in planning for the future of Faith Communities in our Parishes. As it has become more and more obvious that from a Clergy perspective, numbers have decreased and will decrease further in coming years. What is equally obvious is that there is a role for everyone who shares in community and the need to spread the workload across a larger group of people. there is no argument as to a logic that when a greater number take on responsibility within any organisation it makes it less onerous on those involved. to this end we are planning a Parish Assembly to take place on Monday April 11th at the Church of Our Lady in Roslevan, at 8pm. Here lies the ASK!! as a Community that is spread from the top of Larch Hill to the southern tip of Moyreisk.... we drastically need representation from the community as a whole and from the different age profiles within the Parish. I appreciate there is always a fear that if you come to a meeting like this you will walk away with a job.... all we ask is that you consider coming with an open mind and a willingness to see if there is something, however big or small, you could do as we plan our way ahead.

The official opening and blessing of Barefield Memorial Park by Fr. Jerry Carey & Canon O'Carroll will take place Sun 10th April after 11am Mass. Open invitation to everyone to mark this special occasion.

Trocaire Lenten Campaign - As communities support Trocaire during the past season of Lent. A big THANK YOU and congratulations to the students and staff of Barefield NS who raised the sum of €1,100. Trocaire..meaning mercy, reaches out to the most marginalised and suffering across the world.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earthpeace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles Acts 5:27-32.40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning', he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging him on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel.

We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord Responsorial Psalm

Response: I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O lord, you have raised my soul from the dead,
 Restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. R.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to God's holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. R.

The Lord listened and had pity.
 The Lord came to my help.
 For me you have changed my mourning into Dancing;
 O Lord my God, I will thank you forever. R.

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse. Apo 5:11-14

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation—everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The word of the Lord Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has risen: he who created all things, and has granted his mercy to men. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John. John 21:1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night. It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Jesus said to his disciples: Come and eat.
And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia.
