The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph (Year C) 26th December, 2021

The world famous South African Anglican bishop, Desmond Tutu once said: "You don't choose your family. They are God's gift to you, as you are to them."

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of Holy Family. What do you think of when you hear the word "family?" Family means people we love and those who love us; those we are connected to through a shared history and experience.

All families have challenges, strengths and areas where they can grow. Family is not about who is in your family or who you consider family as much as it is about how your family functions - how the relationships are. Is there relationship between husband and wife, between parents and children, between siblings and in laws and with God? Our families should function as that of the holy Family. Today's readings give us some essential elements to build up any relationship and thus to mould our families in the line of the Holy Family.

MUTUAL LOVE

We become members of a family not by our choice but by God. Love between husband and wife, parents and children, brothers and sisters are not based on our likes and dislikes, but is a decision. It is a decision by one to love the other even if the other does not. The promise husbands and wives make at marriage is, "I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honour you all the days of my life." It is a life commitment based not on feelings but on love. Each member of the family should regard one another as God's gift to each other.

MUTUAL TRUST AND HELP

For any successful marriage, it is important to trust one's partner and be faithful to that partner. Trust is the basis of any genuine relationship. Family is a team work. Each member of the family is responsible to keep the family intact.

If all the burdens are carried by one person soon that person will break down. "The strength of a family, like the strength of an army, is in its loyalty to each other." - Mario Puzo

MUTUAL RESPECT AND PRAYER

Everyone deserves respect. Respect is seen in the way we address one another, behave towards one another and help one another. Our families can be holy only if the members build up their relationship with God through prayer. It is said, "A family that prays together stays together." At the marriage of Cana, the presence of Jesus and Mary helped the family to overcome the shortage the family faced. The challenges our families face, the shortages that may occur, can be overcome by the help of Jesus and Mary. If all our families live like the Holy Family of Nazareth what a wonderful world our world would be!

"The union of family lies in love; and love is the only reconciliation of authority and liberty" – R.H. Benson

A Prayer to The Holy Family for Protection of Family

O Jesus, our most loving Redeemer!

You came to enlighten the world
with Your teaching and example, and to live the greater part of Your life with Mary and Joseph in their home at Nazareth.

Thus You sanctified the family that was to be an example to all Christian families.

Graciously receive our family,
which is dedicated and consecrated to You this day.
Protect it; guard it and establish it in holy fear, in peace,
and in the harmony of Christian charity.

By conforming ourselves to the model of Your family,
may we all without exception attain to eternal happiness.

Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother!

By your intercession make this, our humble offering,
acceptable to Jesus and obtain for us
His grace and blessings.

O St. Joseph, most holy guardian of Jesus and Mary!

Assist us by your prayers I n all our spiritual and temporal needs,
so that we may be able to praise our Divine Saviour, Jesus, together with Mary and you for all eternity. Amen.

Challenging times - Hope filled times!

Christmas 2021 comes to us as we still try to navigate our way through the Covid 19 pandemic. Hopefully you are managing to do it without much difficulty. As people of faith, we have prayed for all who, through the past almost two years, have taken their place in the front line of protection and provision of healing in this time of upheaval. While we may not feel much joy as this virus continues to bring sickness and death, when fear and darkness threatens to overcome the light – we, as followers of Jesus Christ, must bear joy to this aching world.

Once again we are invited at the darkest time of the year to step out of the shadows and reach into the light. It is a time of reappraisal of personal, family and community values in the light of the One who came as the Christ Child of Bethlehem to bring us Good News.

Every Christmas is a reliving of that event which changed human history. Each Christmas is an invitation to walk in the light of Christ and to view our neighbours in that light. It is essentially a family feast, an occasion for exchanging gifts and sharing the warmth of our homes in the company of our dear ones. It is important that we take time to celebrate what we have and to give thanks for those near and dear to us. It is also essential that we do so with some restraint again this year.

To those who day after day, week after week, serve our parish community as members of the Pastoral Council, School Boards of Management, Parish Finance Committee, Sacristans, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Distributors of Envelopes, Choirs, Soloists and Organists, Church Cleaners, Cemetery Supervisors, Parish CES Scheme, Caretaker Myles and Cora, our Parish Secretary we say a sincere “thank you”. Your dedication and devotion are greatly appreciated!

This Christmas, may we discover the surprises of God’s love, the depth of His compassion, and the warmth of His welcome. The message of Christmas is one of hope and a better way. The One who lay in the crib also knows the pain of the cross. He is Emmanuel, God with us. He welcomes us. May we welcome Him!

In the words of one traditional seasonal blessing, we wish you and yours the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Mary and Joseph, and most especially, the peace of the Christ-child for this Christmas 2021 and for the New Year.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

The shepherds went in haste,
and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant lying in a manger.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

A reading from the first book of Samuel.

1 Sm 1:20-22.24-28

Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son, and called him Samuel, 'since' she said, 'I asked the Lord for him.'

When a year had gone by, the husband Elkanah went up again with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the Lord and to fulfil his vow. Hannah, however, did not go up, having said to her husband, 'Not before the child is weaned. Then I will bring him and present him before the Lord and he shall stay there for ever.'

When she had weaned him, she took him up with her together with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour and a skin of wine, and she brought him to the temple of the Lord at Shiloh; and the child was with them. They slaughtered the bull, and the child's mother came to Eli. She said, 'If you please, my lord. As you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the Lord. This is the child I prayed for, and the Lord granted me what I asked him. Now I make him over to the Lord for the whole of his life. He is made over to the Lord.' There she left him, for the Lord.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: They are happy who dwell in your house, O Lord.

How lovely is Your dwelling place,
Lord, God of hosts.

My soul is longing and yearning,

Is yearning for the courts of the Lord.

My heart and my soul ring out their joy

To God, the living God.

R

They are happy, who dwell in Your house,
For ever singing Your praise.

They are happy, whose strength is in You;

They walk with ever growing strength.

R

O Lord, God of hosts, hear my prayer,
Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield,

Look on the face of your anointed.

R

A reading from the first letter of St. John.

1 Jn 3:1-2.21-24

Think of the love that the Father has lavished
on us, by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.

Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.

My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future
has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

My dear people, if we cannot be condemned by our own conscience, we need not be afraid
in God's presence, and whatever we ask him
we shall receive, because we keep his commandments and live the kind of life that he wants. His commandments are these:
that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we love one another as he told us to do.

Whoever keeps his commandments lives in God and God lives in him.

We know that he lives in us by the Spirit that he has given us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Open our heart, O Lord,

To accept the words of your Son.

Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Lk 2:41-52

Every year the parents of Jesus used to go to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover. When he was twelve years old, they went up for the feast as usual. When they were on their way home after the feast, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem without his parents knowing it. They assumed he was with the caravan, and it was only after a day's journey that they went to look for him among their relations and acquaintances. When they failed to find him they went back to Jerusalem looking for him everywhere.

Three days later, they found him in the Temple, sitting among the doctors, listening to them, and asking them questions; and all those who heard him were astounded at his intelligence and his replies. They were overcome when they saw him, and his mother said to him, 'My child, why have you done this to us? See how worried your father and I have been, looking for you.' 'Why were you looking for me?' he replied. 'Did you not know that I must be busy with my Father's affairs?' But they did not understand what he meant.
He then went down with them and came to Nazareth and lived under their authority. His mother stored up all these things in her heart.
And Jesus increased in wisdom, in stature, and in favour with God and men

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible
and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world
to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Our God has appeared on the earth,
and lived among us.
