The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Year C) 19th June , 2022

We are of one Body, we are of his Body

The feast we celebrate today is known as Corpus Christi, the Body of Christ.

Coming together within our parish community to unite ourselves with Jesus in the Eucharist requires an attitude of heart by which we accept one another as part of God's family. The following witnessed by the writer Joseph Donders brings this home to us.

'At a magnificent Cathedral, some pilgrims who were visiting the city came outside into the sunshine having just participated in a Mass during which each of them received Holy Communion. Earlier, I had noticed them as they approached the altar to receive communion and I also saw a blind man with a white cane receiving communion at the same time.

After Mass was over, they all exited the Cathedral together, with the blind man walking along with them tapping the pavement in front with his cane. Then I watched as they all stood around in front of the Cathedral doors looking up at the building taking photos and selfies.

Being blind, of course the man couldn't see them or what was going on but he would have been well aware of them all moving around and talking excitedly. The pilgrims didn't see him, either, although they weren't blind.

They were too preoccupied as they chatted and laughed among themselves.

In all the hustle and bustle, the blind man ended up in the middle of them and someone stepped on his cane and bent it, while he was pushed forward on the path. Nobody noticed what had happened and he was left alone, trying to straighten his cane and get his bearings.

A few minutes before, they all had been to Holy Communion remembering what Jesus said to them: 'This is my Body, this is my Blood!'

Yet, when it came to everyday life, that reality became lost. The body did not seem to have formed. They were not really in communion. They did not really form his Body, our Body.'

Did they? Do we?

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A Reading from the book of Genesis.

Gen 14:18-20

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The Lord will send from Zion

 on the holy mountains;
 from the womb before the daybreak
 I begot you. R.

The Lord has sworn an oath

A Reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

Cor 11:23-26

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.'

In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord

SEQUENCE

Behold the bread of angels, sent
 For pilgrims in their banishment,
 The bread for God's true children meant,
 That may not unto dogs be given:

Of in the olden types foreshadowed;
 In Isaac on the altar bowed,
 And in the ancient paschal food,
 And in the manna sent from heaven.

Come then, good shepherd, bread divine,
 Still show to us thy mercy sign;
 Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;
 So may we see thy glories shine
 In fields of immortality;

O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,
 Our present food, our future rest,
 Come, make us each Thy chosen guest,
 Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest
 With saints whose dwelling is with thee.

Amen Alleluia.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever!.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. Lk 9:11-17

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.'

He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.'

But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men.

But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down.

Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd.

They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.
