Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) 3rd July, 2022

Connection....A need to feel Connected.

There is a rota in place where we take turns to write the front page of the weekly Newsletter. It is usually a reflection on the story of the Gospel of that week.

Some weeks you can write a thousand words or more on the Gospel story and some weeks you struggle to put into words your own perception of the Gospel.

Then we wonder what is it that we are looking for in order to write the front page?

It is a connection. A connection between your own thoughts and the writing of the Gospel each week. This is so important, as it is vital to feel a connection between ourselves and God, between ourselves and our weekly Mass and most importantly between ourselves and other people.

We are connected to our families. This provides us with our roots and spreads out to include a huge amount of people in our immediate and distant families.

We are connected to other important aspect of everyday life..... internet connection, gas or electric connection, phone and social media connection. Connecting with others is more important than you might think. Social connection can lower anxiety and depression, help us regulate our emotions, lead to higher self-esteem and empathy, and actually improve our immune systems. By neglecting our need to connect, we put our health at risk.

We sometimes neglect or are too busy to remember the most important connection. Our connection with God as He too is vital to our spiritual and emotional needs. So today as you leave Mass say "Thank You God and I am here and I will do my very best to make a connection with you each day.....if only to say "Hello".

The definition of Connection in the dictionary is:

a relationship in which a person or thing is linked or associated with something else.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God,
We have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
Reaches the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled with saving justice.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, for give us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth
peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord
God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord
God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Is 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:

Now towards her I send flowing peace,
like a river, and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurselings be carried and fondled in her lap.

Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.

And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.

To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth
O sing to the glory of his name
O render him glorious praise. Say to God:
how tremendous your deeds. R.

"Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!"
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. R.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules forever by his might. R.

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. R.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians.

Gal 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him
to become an altogether new creature.
Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule,
who form the Israel of God.
I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Lk. 10:1-12.17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others
and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.
Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals.
Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be,
"Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you.

Stay in the same house, taking what food
and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you". But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, that on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.' The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord', they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name'.
He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightening from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you;
rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven'.

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.
